The Queenslander Pictorial.

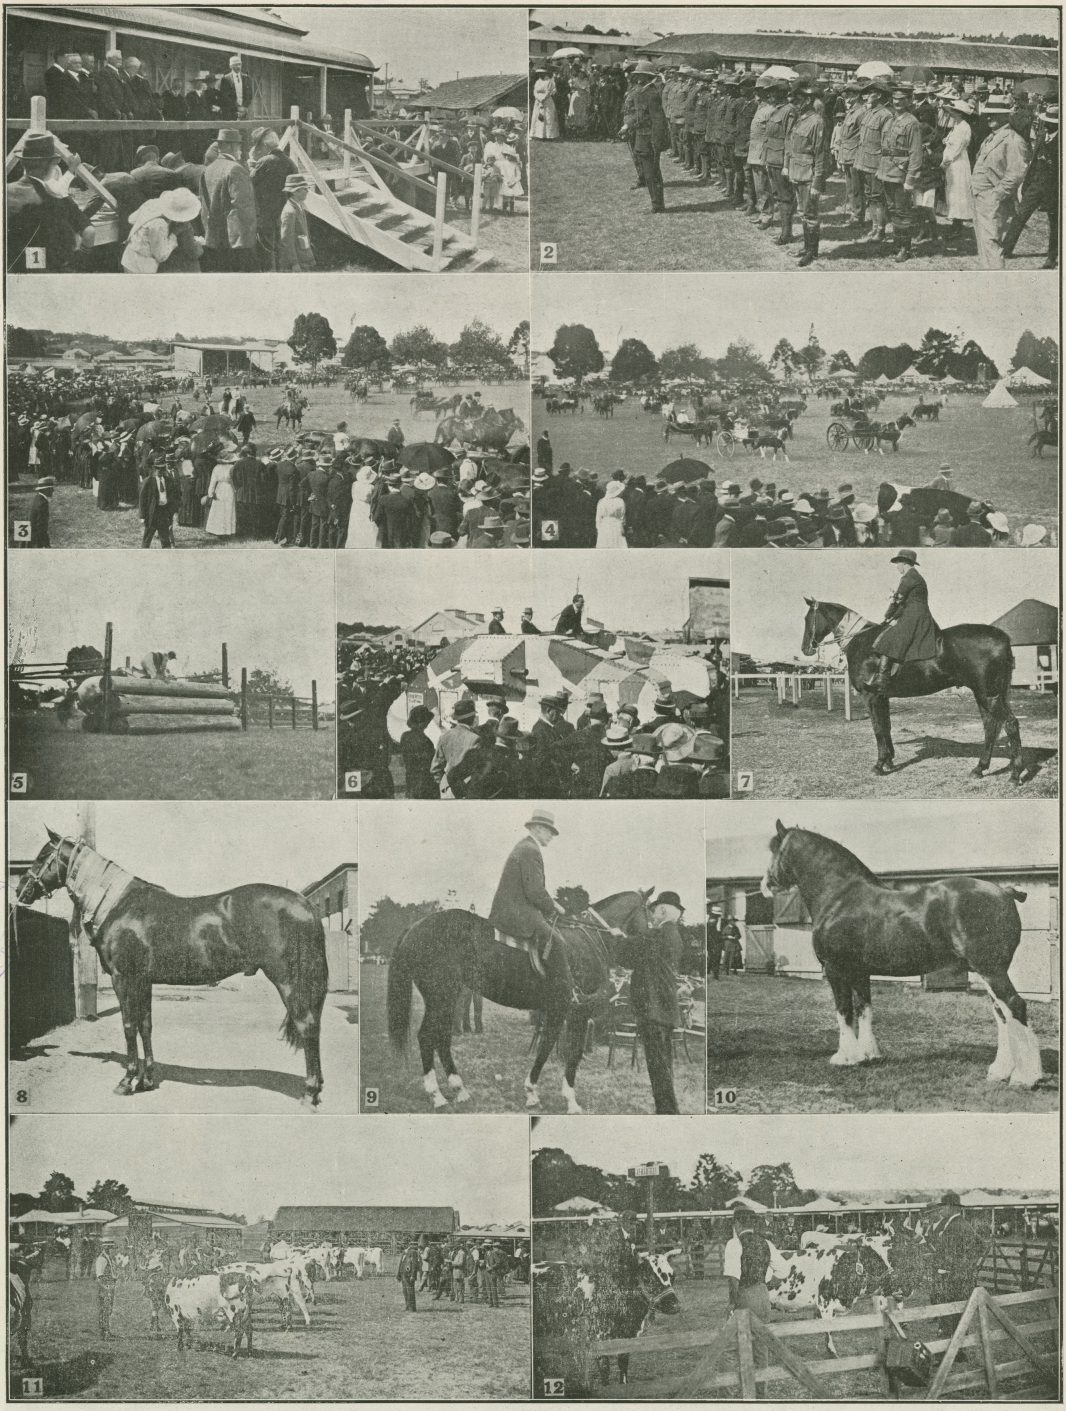
GENERAL FOCH.

Commander-in-Chief of all the Allied Armies.

FIGHTING A WATER PEST.

Swan Bay, Richmond River, New South Wales, showing water hyacinth two years ago.

The same bay to-day, viewed from the same position as the picture above, showing the good work accomplished by the Hyacinth Eradication Board. —G. Hunt, Coraki, photo.

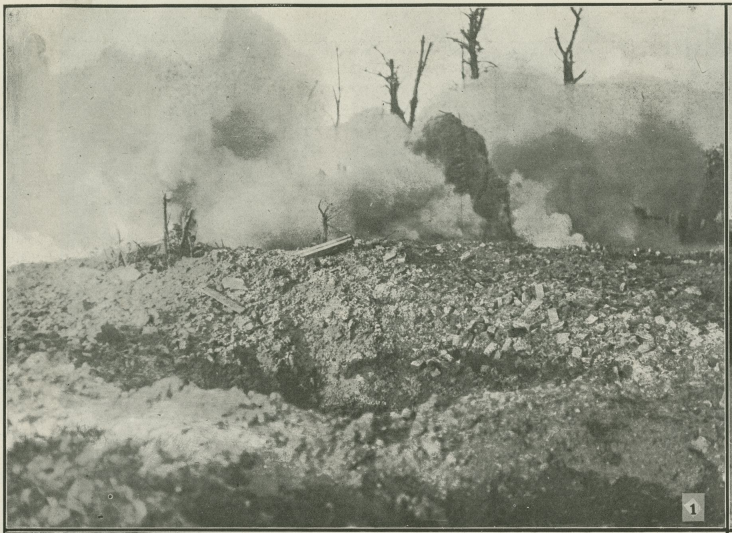


AT THE TOOWOOMBA ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SHOW.

(1) The Governor declaring the show open. (2) The guard of honour, composed wholly of returned soldiers. (3. and 4) Two views of the grand parade. (5). A bad baulk in the hunting contest. (6) The War Loan "tank" makes its appearance on the show ground. (7). The champion hackney, Moonbi, ridden by Miss May M'Quade. (8). The champion blood horse, Goya King. (9). His Excellency decorating Mr. Guy Watson's horse, which won the Governor's prize for cavalry remount. (10). The champion draught stallion Baron Carlisle. (11). Judging the Ayrshire breeders' groups. The winning group is in the centre of the background. (12). Judging the champion Ayrshire cow.—C. W. Callaghan photo.

WHAT THE KAISER IS THANKFUL FOR.

The Kaiser, in a proclamation to his people, expressed his gratitude to the Almighty that the Germans had been able to keep the devastation of war outside their own territory.



1.—Amid the ruins of Ypres: German shell bursting.

2.—Australian troops marching through a ruined village near Ypres.

3.—A gigantic shell crater, 75 yards in circumference.

4.—German shell bursting at Messines.—Australian official photos.—copyright.

Reinforcements.

Talma, photo

T. M. H. Amunson | C. M. Arnold | E. G. Ashby | G. M. Austin | A. Barr | J. Barrett

O. K. Barrett | T. H. Beddoes | A. V. Bryant | V. Burrows | A. O. Carlill | H. L. Carr | W. Chadwick

F. Cobbin | H. C. Cohen | A. H. Cole | W. Cosford | F. J. Cumeskey | H. Cundy | J. D. Dickson

C. Eastwell | T. Edwards | A. G. Edwards | H. England | W. R. Ferguson | E. Fitzgerald | A. J. Fox

Reinforcements.

Talma, photo

A. G. Freeman | E. C. C. Gee | V. Gribben | J. D. Griffiths | E. Guy | S. J. Haffenden

W. H. Hagon | S. J. Hagon | F. C. Harry | C. R. Howard | J. Johanson | T. Johnson | C. Jones

J. A. Kirkland | J. A. Kluck | S. Knight | G. S. Lambert | H. L. Law | R. G. Lawton | B. C. Macarthie

C. W. H. Macfarlane | E. J. MacIntosh | F. Manning | G. S. Manning | W. H. Mather | P. T. Meakin | V. D. Mengel

FOUR YEARS AGO.—IN MEMORY OF ANZAC DAY, APRIL 25, 1915.

Some of the original Anzacs in training at Enoggera Camp, Brisbane, in 1914. How many of these light-hearted boys have since given their lives for their country? No such scene as this is to be found in the camps to-day.

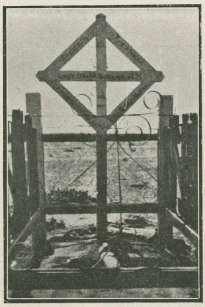
—Fegan photo.

ABORIGINALS MAKING FIRE, ROPER RIVER, NORTHERN TERRITORY.

T. J. M'Mahon photo.

LIEUT. HUGH M. DOUGLAS.

Son of the late Hon. John Douglas. Died of wounds in France, April 8.



LIEUT. D. H. M. SINCLAIR'S GRAVE IN PALESTINE.

Erected by the officers and troops of his regiment.

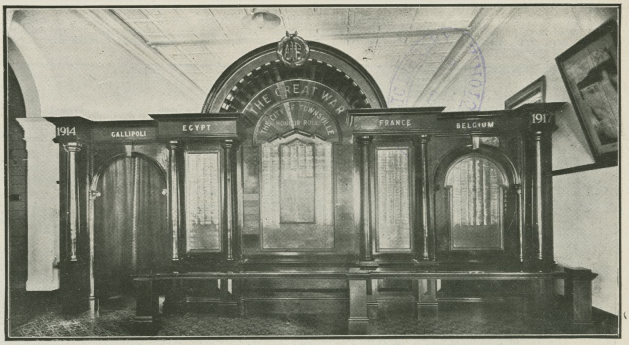
Corporal J. A. Speechley, of Warwick, and another man whose name is unknown, but probably a Queenslander also. Corporal Speechley has been a prisoner for more than a year. The photograph, which is from the prison camp at Langensolya, Germany, is sent from London to the "Queenslander" by Mrs. G. A. Bell, of Coochin.

Privates H. H. Petersen (Rockhampton) and Woods (Nebo), who are in the hands of the Huns. The photograph was sent to the "Queenslander" by Private Petersen from Stuttgart, Wurtemburg, Germany.

QUEENSLANDERS AS PRISONERS OF WAR IN GERMANY.

FIVE QUEENSLAND N.C.O.'S AT DRAUGHTS IN ROUEN, FRANCE.

The names (not in order) are: Sergeant-major F. R. E. Evans (F.A.B.), Staff-sergeant S. C. Blanchard (D.A.C.), Staff-sergeant Fred. R. Swan (F.A.B.), Staff-sergeant W. G. Allat (F.A.B.), and Staff-sergeant R. W. M. Mair (F.A.B.).



HONOUR BOARD OF THE CITY OF TOWNSVILLE.

Made of 20 varieties of Queensland timber, with oxidised copper name panels, Corinthian columns, and circular panels.

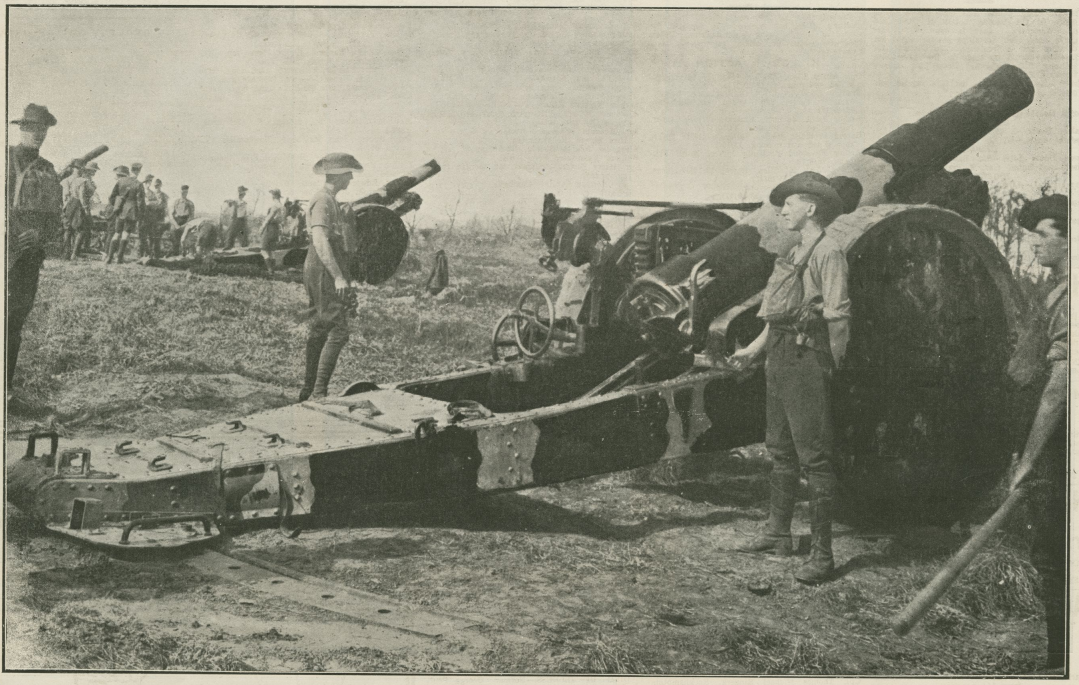
TWO BROTHERS WHO MET IN ENGLAND.

Corporal A. Bleeckley, of a Queensland Infantry Battalion, and Charles James Bleeckley, munition worker, sons of Alderman J. Bleeckley, of Maryborough.

THE SCHOLARSHIP HOLDERS OF 1918 FROM THE NEW FARM STATE SCHOOL.

—Fegan photo.

WITH THE AUSTRALIAN SEIGE BATTERY ON THE WESTERN FRONT.



A BATTERY OF AUSTRALIAN SIEGE ARTILLERY OPENING A BOMBARDMENT WITH A SALVO.
A cable message last week stated that the Australian Siege Battery played a prominent part in the Armentieres battle, and was almost surrounded by the Germans before retiring, which was done in good order, all the guns being removed safely to a new position, from which a fresh bombardment was opened. —Australian official photo.—Copyright.

SANDBAGGED DUG-OUT OCCUPIED BY MEMBERS OF AN AUSTRALIAN HOWITZER BATTERY. —Australian official photo.—Copyright.